MADISON DEFEATS TELSTAR 20-7 TO REMAIN UNBEATEN

Madison High struck for two first period scores and went on for a 20-7 win over visiting Telstar High in Mountain Valley Conference football action last Saturday afternoon.

It was the sixth straight triumph for the unbeaten and league-leading Bulldogs while the Rebels dipped to 4-2.

Madison drove 60 yards in eight plays for its first tally early in the opening period with sophomore halfback Glyn Withee covering the final seven yards. The big play in the series was a 33 yard romp by senior halfback George Flanagan. The rush for the extra point was piled up.

Late in the period the Bulldogs hit again moving from midfield for a score in eight plays with a 19 yard run by Gary Spencer producing the six points. A rush for the extra points was stopped short of the mark.

Midway through the second period, Telstar moved 50 yards for its lone tally. Levi Brown capped the march by diving over from the one and Paul Farrar added the extra point to make it 12-7 at the intermission.

A pass interception set up the final TD of the contest. Randy Franzose intercepted at midfield and raced back to the Telstar 31. The Bulldogs went the distance in six plays with Flanagan hitting in from four yards out. Flanagan also rushed the extra points.

Telstar started a belated drive for another score late in the contest and moved from midfield to the Madison five. A Duffy Ellsworth pass to Doug Brooks, good for 14 yards, kept the attack moving. After two incomplete passes, sophomore fullback Paul Withee intercepted an Ellsworth aerial to thwart the drive and the Bulldogs ran out the clock.

The winners recorded 15 first downs to Telstar's seven.

Lisbon High will visit Telstar for a 1:30 game Saturday, Oct. 19.

Last Saturday's summary:

Madison 12 0 0 2-20
Telstar 0 7 0 0-7
M-G. Withee, 7 run (rush failed); M-Spencer, 19 run (rush failed); T-Brown, 1 run (Farrar kick); M-Flanagan, 4 run (Flanagan rush).

BETHEL REPUBLICAN TOWN COMMITTEE MET TUESDAY

The Bethel Republican Town Committee met Tuesday evening at the home of the town chairman, Leland Brown, with Republican candidates, Rep. Jay Willard and County Commissioner Norman K. Ferguson Jr., present.

A review of the updated voting list was made with Town Manager Elwyn Dickey and Town Clerk Judith Young.

Under the new election laws Title 21 the voters in the unorganized townships of Albany and Mason will be unable to vote for the candidates for house of representatives, as these unorganized townships are now in District #66. They will be able to vote for all other candidates if they wish to vote in District 63 (Bethel). If they wish to change their voter registration to Stoneham, Greenwood or Norway they may vote for candidates for house of representatives.

A list of ballot clerks for Nov. 5 election was presented to the town clerk and she will assign the schedule. Republican checkers and callers were assigned their duties and the schedule will be confirmed at the next meeting.

Chairman Brown reported that James Erwin, candidate for Governor will be in the Bethel area, Thursday, Oct. 17, and Congressman Bill Cohen will be in the area Friday, Oct. 18.

The fund raising chairman reported Bethel's quota of $1040 was in sight with an 87% return to date.

Committee meeting of the Republican town committee will be held in the next two weeks to finalize election plans.

DEMO. TOWN COMMITTEE WELCOMES CANDIDATES

The Bethel Democratic Town Committee welcomed two candidates at their weekly meeting held at the home of Emily Saunders, candidate for the House of Representatives from the 63rd District.

Candidates Burton MacDonald, West Peru, running for County Treasurer, and Edward Quinn, of Gilead, running for County Commissioner, commented on issues concerning county government.

Those present were very receptive to the candidates' ideas on the centralization of county services, namely the Superior Court and the Registry of Deeds. Mr. MacDonald outlined his plan for a county waste collection and recycling service, which would relieve the many small towns in the county of the nearly impossible task of providing legal landfill sites to replace existing dumps by 1975. Both Mr. Quinn and Mr. MacDonald emphasized their concern with the lack of initiative on the part of present county officials in beginning such vital programs. Both men stressed the fact that in a rural area, the county could serve to coordinate many essential programs and services if active and thoughtful leadership, on more than a part-time basis, were present.

The Bethel Committee spent the remainder of the meeting planning campaign activities, which take on a note of increased excitement as the date for voting—Nov. 5—draws near.

Mrs. Saunders announced that advertising for her campaign will be in the form of newspaper ads, posters in store windows, and a few signs on private property. There will be no roadside signs which in past election years have been a major category of highway litter.

Residents of Bethel may look forward to the 1974 version of the Town Democratic Committee's campaign window, featuring posters and informational material on the candidates, on display from Oct. 19 through Election Day. Through the generosity and community spirit of the Bethel Savings Bank, this year's window will be in the Cole Book on Upper Main Street in Bethel.

The M. E. C.'s will meet Tuesday evening, Oct. 22, at the home of Sylvia Benson. A 6:30 supper will be followed by a meeting and game party.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart C. McInnis

Miss Sheri Ann Learned, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy H. Learned, Newry, became the bride of Stuart C. McInnis in a late summer ceremony performed at the Newry Community Church on August 24. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth C. McInnis, Bryant Pond.

Pastor Albert Buzzell of Andover, performed the double ring ceremony at the altar adorned with baskets of white gladioli and two standing tiered candelabra. Mrs. Stanley Fox of Bethel was soloist, and was accompanied at the organ by her husband. Church bells were rung before and after the ceremony by Gary Wight. The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with a high neckline and ruffled edge yoke, long fitted sleeves with ruffled edge, and full skirt sweeping into a Chapel train. Her elbow length nylon veil was caught to a crown of chiffon hearts accented with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible adorned with a bouquet of white roses, daisies and poms dyed to match the attendants' gowns.

Miss Debra Learned, affiliated in a white dotted Swiss gown with daisy appliques was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Albert Buzzell, Andover, friend of the bride, in pink; Miss Suzanne McInnis, sister of the bridegroom, in yellow; Miss Vickie Learned, sister of the bride in green. Miss Terry Canwell, Brockton, Mass., cousin of the bride, and Miss Tammy Learned, sister of the bride, were junior bridesmaids in gowns of pink and yellow. They all carried a long stemmed white rose accented with streamers to match their gowns.

Miss Emily Cummings, Turner, cousin of the bride, and Meredith Haegle were flower girls in gowns of green and white. They each carried a basket of rose petals. All gowns were of dotted swiss with daisy appliques fashioned like the maid of honor's.

John Callina, of South Paris, was best man. Ushers were John Learned, brother of the bride, Mark McInnis, brother of the bridegroom, and Michael Jordan, friend of the bride. Junior ushers were Scott Murphy, of South Rumford, cousin of the bride, and Eric Gunter, Bethel. Ring bearer was Thomas Canwell of Gorham, cousin of the bride. They all wore white tuxedos with colored ruffled skirts to match the bride's attendants' gowns.

Mrs. Learned selected a blue gown with daisy appliques for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. McInnis' gown was pink.

A reception was held at the Bear Eater Grange Hall where a buffet lunch was served by Paula Wight and Mrs. Charles Haegle, friends of the bride. Punch was served by Mrs. Paul Wight and Mrs. Barbara Canwell, Brockton, Mass., aunt of the bride.

The wedding cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Wight. Cindy Learned, sister of the bride, circulated the guest book.

The gift table was attended by Miss Gail McInnis, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Maynard Murphy, South Rumford, aunt of the bride.

Following the reception festivities, the bridal couple left for a motor tour through Maine. They are now at home at 463 St. John's Street, Portland.

The bride is a 1972 graduate of Tratar Regional High School, and the groom graduated from Woodstock High School. They both now are students at the University of Maine, Portland-Gorham.

IN MEMORIAM

Lillian Smith
October 12, 1973
I think of you in silence
And make no outward show
But what it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.
You wished no one a last farewell
Not even said Good-bye
You were gone before I knew it
And only God knows why
A golden heart stopped beating
Your tender hands at rest
God broke my heart to prove to me
He only takes the best.
If stairs were made from heart-
aches
By adding teardrops too
I'd build a stairway to heaven
And climb it each day to you.
Too dearly loved and missed to ever be forgotten.

it was the first time I'd ever seen see nothing but lights. It looked

Bethel Church of the Nazarene

There seems to be an increasing desire among people to know what the future holds. Thus we see that there is a great interest in the occult. People turn to Astrology, E. S. P., Fortune tellers, Witchcraft and Mysticism of all kinds. Somehow they feel these things hold the key to the future. It is not given to us to know the future. Today, this very moment is all we can be sure of in our lives. There is one thing certain—we may not know the future but we can know The God who holds the future in His Hands. This life is to be a Walk of Faith!

HARRIS DISCUSSES BOND ISSUE AT LIONS MEETING

The Bethel Lions Club, at a Ladies' Night Dinner at the always popular Sudbury Inn, last Tuesday night inducted two new members and heard Bill Harris of the Department of Transportation clarify some of the aspects of the upcoming bond and truck weight issues.

The two new members are Charles Newell and John Rayne, both of Bethel. Charlie, married and the father of two youngsters, is associated with Gould Academy and wears several hats, being director of athletics, soccer coach, baseball coach, and a member of the science department.

John, also married and the father of two youngsters, is the popular resident manager of Saga Foods, purveyor of culinary delicacies to Gould Academy. John is a living example of the old axiom that the way to a student's heart is through his stomach. Veteran Lion Charlie Roth, coming from Harrison, with his wife Mary, presided over the simple but impressive ceremony of induction.

William Harris, of the Department of Transportation, presented an interesting slide show and discussed the upcoming referendum.

Lions are advised that the November meetings will be held at the Sunday River Inn, under the aegis of genial boniface Steve Wight. We hope John and Bev Gasser enjoy a well-deserved rest while the "Suds" is closed during November.

MDOT ENGINEER SPEAKS ON HIGHWAY BOND ISSUE AND TRUCK WEIGHT LAW

"The bond issue of $7.8 million to be voted on in the November referendum is needed to continue a program of road and bridge improvements," William Harris, engineer of design, Maine Department of Transportation, told the Bethel Lions Club at their meeting Tuesday evening, Oct. 15.

"These funds," he said, "represent a minimum program of road improvements in the state."
Harris pointed out that there are nearly $1 million in highway improvements for Oxford County outlined in the MDOT's current construction program. These projects, along with future highway improvements throughout the state, are tied to the bond issue.

Funds available to the department from current revenue sources—gasoline tax, vehicle registration and driver licenses—or $9.3 million, have been or are currently being committed toward ongoing road projects.
"By the time Maine voters go to the polls in November, revenue to fund the MDOT's road improvement program will have been virtually exhausted," said Harris.
With the passage of the bond issue, the department would be able to generate approximately $26 million in federal money. "This would result," he said, "in a total improvement program of nearly $34 million."

"The improvements, by the way, consist of not just reconstruction but resurfacing, the correction of high-accident locations, and the state share (10%) of a few Interstate projects."

At the same time that the department is carrying out this program during the current biennium, it will retire $10 million in outstanding bonds. In short, if the voters approve the bond issue, Harris told the Lions Club members present, the department will still be able to reduce its bonded indebtedness by $2.3 million while carrying on a road and bridge improvement program of nearly $34 million.

The other issue on the ballot in November is the legislation regulating truck weights. "The department is concerned," said Harris, "about the effects of heavier vehicle weights on highways throughout the state, and particularly the impact on bridges."

"Certainly, as written, the truck weight law allows weights that would do considerable harm to Maine highways and bridges. It seems reasonable that this matter should be reviewed by Legislature."

As to the bond issue, said Harris, most of us would agree that an adequate system of roads in our state is a necessity, for it is our basic form of transportation. "To maintain the system and protect our considerable investment in it," he said, "a continuing program of improvements is needed."

"The only available funding mechanism available to keep the program moving at this time is the $7.8 million bond issue to be voted on Nov. 5."

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carter recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Fogg. Freeport and enjoyed a deep sea fishing trip.

S. A. D. 17 VOTERS APPROVE SCHOOL RENOVATIONS

Voters in S. A. D. 17 approved an addition to the junior high school and renovations to various school buildings in a special referendum election, Tuesday, Oct. 15. PROVIDING FOR A HEAD START

In its eight years of existence, Oxford County Economic Opportunity Council's Head Start Program has housed its three centers in eight different facilities. The program has had to take "left over" buildings in the community—buildings that were sometimes inappropriate for use by others had to suffice for Head Start. Head Start made the best of what was offered—carrying water to an old schoolhouse with no running water, covering cement floors with donated carpets and building a bulkhead into a church basement to use as an exit. The agency was always thankful to have these locations made available, no matter how modest; however, that can be no more.

Head Start in the next couple of years will be required to meet State Licensing Standards. Present facilities will not meet these requirements and now the problem is PROVIDING FOR A HEAD START.

In order to solve this problem OCEO is announcing plans to begin fund raising drives throughout Oxford County in order to renovate existing structures or build new centers. Plans were first announced at an exhibit at the Fryeburg Fair which included drawings by architects Steven Moore and John Weinrich of Rumford Point representing a "prototype" Head Start center specifically designed for the Oxford County Head Start Program. The purpose of the architectural drawings and study was to stimulate interest in the possibilities of new facilities or renovating existing structures.

David Kilpatrick of Western Maine Graphics in So. Paris contributed to the Head Start effort by designing and printing brochures which were distributed at the Fryeburg Fair and will also be used to promote public awareness throughout the county of the Head Start program, its concerns regarding inappropriate facilities and plans for improving facilities.

The fund raising committees will be organized soon in each of the Oxford County areas housing Head Start Centers, PROVIDING FOR A HEAD START is the goal; obtaining adequate facilities is the problem. The effort can be successful only with the support of our Oxford County communities. If you would like to help or would like more information, call Oxford County Economic Opportunity Council in South Paris or the Head Start Director, Charleen Lever, at 743-2101.

"MANAGING DOLLARS: WISDOM OR SELF-DECEPTION?"

A three-week series entitled "Managing Dollars: Wisdom or Self-Deception?" will be held throughout Oxford County. These meetings will be of extreme interest to all persons concerned with the purchasing power of their dollar.

The series will be held on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 on Oct. 30, Nov. 6, and Nov. 13, in Fryeburg, South Paris and Rumford. The meetings will be held at Oxford Hills High School in South Paris, Rumford High School and Fryeburg Academy.

Subject Matter of Each Session

"Does Money Have You In a Squeeze?" Louise Huff, former Extension Agent, will offer practical information on how to spend, save, and protect your family financially. Many specific ideas on "How to stretch your dollar" will be shared at this meeting.

"You Owe It To Yourself" will be the topic of the evening presented by Richard J. Denison of the Norway National Bank, and Phyllis B. Walker, Family Financial Counselor. Your questions will be answered on coping with consumer credit from the initial decision of buying on time to the realistic possibility of becoming buried with debts. What alternatives are open to you? How are you protected as a consumer?

"Strengthen Your Food Dollar" is the foremost idea in many people's minds as shoppers deal with higher prices in the markets. Can you tighten your food budget allowance? Can you provide your family with an adequate nutritionally balanced diet? Pamela Libby, Home Economics Teacher, South Paris, and Stephanie B. Knight, Extension Agent, will focus in on this crucial topic.

The three sessions will be presented on a rotating basis as follows:

Rumford: Oct. 30, Strengthen Your Food Dollar; Nov. 6, Does Money Have You In a Squeeze?; Nov. 13, You Owe It To Yourself.

South Paris: Oct. 30, You Owe It To Yourself; Nov. 6, Strengthen Your Food Dollar; Nov. 13, Does Money Have You In a Squeeze?

Fryeburg: Oct. 30, Does Mon-

"MAINE . . . NOT ME." DRIVE UNDERWAY

"Maine Life" Editor-Publisher Heads Campaign

A campaign has begun to initiate legislation to prohibit any branch or agency of Maine State government from using any abbreviated form in the spelling of the name of the State.

The Campaign is a direct result of negative reaction to the overuse by such state agencies as the Department of Commerce and Industry and the State Lottery Commission of such promotional and advertising slogans as "Explore Me.", "Dig Me.", "Play Me." and "Meet Me. in the woods".

The drive is spearheaded by Dave Olson, Editor-Publisher of "Maine Life," a monthly publication expressly designed for "those who love Maine." It all began as a suggestion in an Olson editorial in the July issue of the publication.

The editorial drew such positive response from "Maine Life" readers that Olson is now actively seeking assistance in his effort to initiate legislation which would eliminate the "Me-gimmick—at least where the State government is concerned.

Because he is opposed to "using the name of this state in a carnival-like atmosphere," Editor-Publisher Olson is looking for the help necessary to secure the signatures of some 40,000 like-minded Mainers on petitions which can bring about "initiative legislation" in the about-to-be-elected 107th Legislature. Such legislation would prohibit any State or Maine agency from using any abbreviated form of the state's name.

As Olson points out in a Page Two editorial of the October "Maine Life," "Initiative legislation" is very similar to a referendum petition, the difference being that a referendum petition is meant to repeal legislation rather than create a law or ruling that is not at present a part of the State's statutes."

While there are several routes which might be taken to accomplish "Initiative legislation", Olson feels that 40,000 signatures in favor of the legislation is the best course to pursue. (10% of the anticipated vote for Governor in November is the requirement.) He is confident that there are many Mainers who, like him, are "tired of seeing our State continually being used as a circus-type gimmick". If so, says Olson, "this petition drive surely will be a worthwhile expenditure of time for all those who choose to involve themselves in this venture."

Olson recognizes that for the "Maine . . . Not Me." campaign to succeed will require volunteers throughout the state to circulate petitions and make certain they are properly signed by registered voters. He estimates that the petitions and other required paper work will be completed in about three weeks and ready for distribution to volunteers before Nov. 1.

The 40,000 signatures must be completed prior to Feb. 1, 1975, so that they, along with the proposed legislation, can be presented to the 107th Legislature before Feb. 15, 1975.

Inquiries about the "Maine . . . Not Me." campaign should be directed to Dave Olson, "Maine Life," Liberty, Maine, 04949.

To the volunteers the rewards of a successful drive to eliminate the cuteness and cheapness in the State's advertising will be the satisfaction of no longer being told to "Make Tracks for Me.", "Camp with Me.", and "Buy Me.". In Olson's words, "perhaps we'll see signs like I saw when I was a boy of 12 or 14 coming here for our annual vacation from the city: 'Hi, friend, Welcome to Maine!'" ey Have You In a Squeeze?; Nov. 6, You Owe It To Yourself; Nov. 13, Strengthen Your Food Dollar.

Save the dates. In the meantime tell your friends about these timely meetings. All meetings are open to the public.

FARMERS TO NOMINATE ASC COMMITTEEMEN

Farmers are asked to nominate candidates of their choice to be on the ASC Oxford County committee ballot, says Charles A. Fillebrown, Chairman of the Oxford County ASC committee.

The ASC Oxford County committee election will be conducted from Nov. 22 to Dec. 2, by mail ballot. The five ASC communities in Oxford County are:

Community A—Brownfield, Denmark, Hiram, Porter, Stow, Fryeburg, Lovell, Sweden.

Community B—Stonewall, Waterville, Norway, Greenwood, Mason, Bethel, Gilthead, Albany.

Community C—Paris, Oxford, West Paris, Woodstock.

Community D—Buckfield, Hebron, Hartford, Canton, Sumner.

Community E—Lincoln, Magalloway, Newry, Upton, Hanover, Milton, Byron, Mexico, Roxbury, Andover, Rumford, Dixfield, Peru.

ASC committees are responsible for managing government farm programs on the local level. To meet the needs of individual producers, ASC committee members must be concerned and responsible individuals. County farmers have the opportunity to nominate persons they feel would best serve the farm community. Farmers will soon receive petition forms by mail and may begin submitting them to the county ASCS office Oct. 3.

A few basic considerations should be kept in mind when circulating petitions. In order to be valid, petitions must be limited to one nominee each, must include written certification that the nominee is willing to serve if elected, must be signed by at least three eligible voters in the ASC community and must be received in the county ASCS office not later than Oct. 29.

A farmer may circulate or sign nominating petitions for as many candidates as he chooses. Anyone wishing to nominate a farmer for the ASC committee election may contact the county ASCS office for full details, including eligibility requirements for officeholders.

Farmer nominations of candidates for the upcoming ASC committee election are very important. Farmers should petition for and elect those individuals they feel would do a good job as ASC committee members. The election of concerned farmers to positions on ASC committees is necessary for good administration of farm programs.

The county ASC office welcomes all valid petitions. The opportunity to nominate a farmer for the ASC committee election may contact the county ASCS office for full details, including eligibility requirements for officeholders.

your week ahead BY DR. A.W. DAMIS

Forecast Period: October 20 to October 26

ARIES

Mar. 21 - Apr. 19

It's a secret between you and the "other you." Nonetheless, this week finds you putting emphasis on personal grooming and improving your wardrobe.

TAURUS

Apr. 20 - May 20

For most members of your sign, things should improve on the financial front. It'll be a situation of good fortune coming by way of strange avenues.

GEMINI

May 21 - June 20

Romantic communications by either phone or mail show in the charts of many Gemini's. A word of advice? Choose your words carefully, this week!

MOONCHILD

June 21 - July 22

Events, persons and conditions that occur during this particular cosmic cycle, will indeed, become permanent things. So, become selective in how and with whom you spend your time.

LEO

July 23 - Aug. 22

It seems as though you've stepped on a few toes the past several weeks. Anyway, stellar patterns indicate the urge, on your part, to make a few amends.

VIRGO

Aug. 23 - Sept. 22

You might find yourself treading on completely new grounds. As a matter of fact, you could easily stray into areas prohibited, in one form or another.

LIBRA

Sept. 23 - Oct. 22

You're inclined to be a little more daring than usual, to put it mildly. You could be tempted by the bizarre. See that you stay in bounds.

SCORPIO

Oct. 23 - Nov. 21

This week's chart doesn't tell you anything that you haven't heard before. Try, more than ever, to keep a tight rein on your temper.

SAGITTARIUS

Nov. 22 - Dec. 21

There's something exciting about your chart; sort of a "bittersweet" situation. There's even a chance of kiss and make up. Actually, all departments in your life should improve.

CAPRICORN

Dec. 22 - Jan. 19

Try to take a trip down memory lane. Why? Well, according to your chart, it is highly probable that you will duplicate a mistake made in the past.

AQUARIUS

Jan. 20 - Feb. 18

Don't think about gambling, even betting a burnt matchstick against a ten dollar bill would be poor odds. Try to hold whatever gains you now possess.

PISCES

Feb. 19 - Mar. 20

It seems as though several of your routine associates want to help. So, control the urge to withdraw from those who surround you.

CONSUMER PRICE INDEX RISES 1.3% IN AUGUST

The Consumer Price Index rose 1.3% in August to 150.2 (1967=100), the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U. S. Department of Labor reported.

The rise was due to higher prices for a wide range of consumer goods and services, notably meats, apparel commodities, mortgage interest costs, and medical care services. The effect of these increases was partially offset by lower prices for fresh vegetables and gasoline.

The August CPI was 11.2% higher than a year ago.

On a seasonally adjusted basis, the rise in the August CPI was also 1.3 percent. This increase compares with an 0.8% rise in July and an average monthly increase of 1% during the first six months of this year.

The food index increased 1.4% in August, following a decline in July, and the index for nonfood commodities continued to rise at a rapid pace. The services index increased 1.1% in August, about the same as in May, June, and July.

The index of food purchased in grocery stores rose 1.5%. This index usually shows a small seasonal decline in August. Increases in indexes for beef and eggs—the first since February—and for pork were much larger than usual for August. Prices of poultry and fresh fruits increased instead of declining seasonally.

In addition, prices continued to rise for other food items such as cereal and bakery products, processed fruits and vegetables, sugar and sweets, nonalcoholic beverages, and partially prepared foods.

The effect of these increases was partially offset by a substantial decline in prices of fresh vegetables. Dairy product prices continued to decline and fish prices decreased. The index for food away from home—restaurant meals and snacks rose 0.9%, somewhat less than in recent months.

The index for nonfood commodities increased 1.4%, instead of declining slightly as it usually does in August. About a third of the rise in this index was due to higher prices for apparel commodities which usually decline in August. Prices of most other nonfood commodities such as household durables, housekeeping supplies, alcoholic beverages, fuel oil and coal, and used cars continued to rise.

The increase in used car prices, however, was considerably smaller than in recent months. The new car index increased slightly, contrary to its usual seasonal decline at the end of the model year. The index for gasoline and motor oil declined in August for the first time since last September.

The services index rose 1.1% in August. Over a fourth of this increase was due to a rise in mort-

GREENWOOD CITY

— Mrs. Collista Morgan, Corres. —

Beautiful October! Color in the woods. Color on the mountains, around the ponds, along the roads. The ash trees are oxblood stained, the beech trees become unpolished copper. Reds and yellows and browns, clashing, blending; catching the breezes and rippling; catching sunlight and glowing.

On my foliage rides, I have found no spot more beautiful than Greenwood, just a different scene.

The dawn mist now is smoky gray beneath the trees, shining, silver grey in the open and across the pond the weeds sparkle with frost. As the sun hits the trees on old Patch rainbows look at themselves in the smooth surface of the water, then ripple with the sunlight of bright October's morning.

I have walked the hills of home and taken stock of the changes: the clumps of asters now dry and brown, milkweeds stripped of their leaves but holding brown seed pods, the silk caught on the grasses, woolly bears spangled and starred with droplets of moisture, goldenrod, now dead and dry, capped with gray.

More and more as the days speed on there is a change. Change, the measure of time!

Beyond the house, at the foot of a rough, scraggy yellow birch, on a bank of moss, richly inlaid with curious shining leaves, I sat to note the scenery; sober New England earth and its sheer reckless extravagance of color.

Close by something moved. I heard the crackle of twigs and looked around. Nearby sat a squirrel. Our eyes met. I must have seemed terrifying to him for he shook himself, puffed out his chest and disappeared with lightning speed, came back, jumped and scolded. He, like all squirrels was pleased to have a spectator. The next moment he was at the top of a tall tree talking to all the universe.

I left him and moved up the hill to better view the valley. Then came a lonely cry; a bird wings his way past, after that perfect silence.

From across the valley came the "barking" of geese. "Wild geese, wild geese, where do you go?"

Is yours always an endless quest Through boundless solitude on high?

Is yours the heart that knows no rest?"

—William Arnett Wofford

I descended the hill with maples ahead. They tossed their great arms in wild ecstasies of gold and red and fiery orange; forgetting all restraint; like Puritans on a binge.

There have been many wonderful moments of beauty on my strolls of the week for those who love the autumn find it everywhere.

The longer I live the more my mind dwells upon this beauty of the earth.

Unbelievable or not, the fact is, we can do a great deal to save energy, and in the process save you money.

FACT: oil heat directly fired saves 3 times the oil it takes to generate the same heat by electricity or any other indirect energy source.

FACT: most oil burners could use a quick inexpensive tune up that could save you 20% or more each year. Like all appliances, your oil furnace needs a little maintenance to run more efficiently. It will run cleaner too.
